

COOPERATION AGREEMENT BETWEEN
ASSOCIATION OF MINING ENGINEERS, METALLURGISTS AND GEOLOGISTS OF MEXICO, A.C.

&
AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF PROFESSIONAL GEOLOGISTS

Subject: Technical, scientific, and professional cooperation between the Association of Mining Engineers, Metallurgists and Geologists of Mexico, A.C. (AIMMGM) and the American Institute of Professional Geologists (AIPG).

Objective: To develop a closer cooperation on a continual basis in order to contribute to, and enhance, the technical, professional, and ethical development of mining, metallurgy, exploration, environmental, and other closely related disciplines in, and for, the signing organizations in the United States and Mexico.

Agreement: All parties have agreed upon the following points:

1. Recognize one another and each organization's status with respect to the geoscience professions in their respective countries.
2. Extend to one another a standing invitation for a representative of the other organization to attend all meetings, including those of any committee or subcommittee, at no registration cost.
3. Will promote technical/scientific contacts between their respective members, organizations. The signers should keep each other well informed in advance about international conferences or symposia organized by their respective organization.
4. The organizations will mutually consider the possibility of joint organizing activities from time to time. Protocols will be developed to specify the details of each joint activity.
5. AIPG members may attend AIMMGM's organized events at AIMMGM member's rate and AIMMGM members may attend AIPG's organized events at AIPG member's rate.
6. Cooperate in establishing contacts with other national and international groups involved in the registration of professional geoscientists and the regulation of the practice of geoscience.
7. This agreement does not prohibit either organization from pursuing other cooperative agreements with other geoscience organizations.
8. This agreement may be terminated by any of the organization provided a minimum 90-day notice be given by one party to the other of their intent to terminate this agreement. Notice of termination should be done in writing and should be signed by proper authorities of the Society.
9. AIPG and AIMMGM will provide booth space for each other at their meetings free of charge. AIPG will provide a 10ft x 10ft booth for AIMMGM at AIPG's annual meeting and AIMMGM will provide a 10ft x 10ft booth for AIPG at AIMMGM biannual convention.

In an expression of agreement of the above principles and intentions set forth above, this agreement of understanding is hereby signed on behalf of:

AIPG

AIPG President 2016

AIPG Executive Director

AIMMGM

AIMMGM President 2014-2016

18/03/2016

AIMMGM Technical Vice President 2014 -2016