

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

2009 Hydraulic Fracturing Conference

Denver, Colorado
November, 12-13, 2009

Presented by: The American Institute of Professional Geologists

This day and a half conference is designed to focus on technical, regulatory, legal, and political aspects of this production-enhancing technology. Presenters and attendees will represent the private sector, government, and academia. The conference is structured to allow for consideration and ample discussion of the most crucial aspects of the hydrofracing process as it pertains to oil & gas production, groundwater production, environmental, and economic impacts.

We welcome abstracts of up to 250 words. Oral presentations will be approximately 20 minutes with an additional 10 minutes for questions.

Some suggested topics include, but are not limited to:

- Fracing Technologies/Injection Techniques
- Fracturing for In Situ Soil & Groundwater Remediation
- Use of Fracing in Remediation
- Federal/State/Local Permitting Issues
- Gas Recovery
- Water Recovery
- Proprietary Issues
- Propping Agents
- Stimulation Additives
- Contamination Issues
- Environmental Impacts
- Lessons Learned, Successful & Unsuccessful

Please submit your abstract by October 29, 2009 and include the name, address, phone numbers and e-mail address of all authors. Abstracts and papers should be in MS Word, Times New Roman, 12-point, single-spaced, and left justified. All authors will be notified of acceptance by November 5, 2009.
